PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The opening of a new club year is like the beginning of the calendar year. We are making a new beginning in the business of being club women; of living the life we have in our hands right now.

This time has been allotted to us; the work is ours to do. "There is hope for the future and help from the past, but for work there is only today."

Work shared with friends becomes pleasure; good friends become closer friends as they together work for a common cause. All of which brings us to the motto of our federation, "Strength United is Stronger."

May we, therefore, keep in mind the well-known words from the Sanskrit, "Today, well lived, makes of every yesterday a dream of happiness; and of every tomorrow, a vision of hope."

ADELINE W. McDANIEL

OUR THEME FOR THE YEAR

Today Is Here

Today is here! "What day," you ask? This day
The only day that we can live today.
Tomorrow . . . A promise or a threat
Yesterday . . . A memory or regret.
But here's today . . . the urgent hour . . . Now,
The living moment, fleeting as we speak, Ah, how,
How may we spend the treasure of this day
That we may bid farewell to it and say,
"This day I lived, Godspeed to you, good day."
Tomorrow comes, Tomorrow's on its way.
Tomorrow's here. Tomorrow is today.
Today is here. —DON BLANDING

A COLLECT FOR CLUBWOMEN

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and know the great, common woman's heart of us all, and, O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind!

—MARY STEWART, Colorado, 1904

FLAG SALUTE

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands; one Nation, under God, indivisible with Liberty and Justice for All."

STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say: can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation
Blessed with victory and peace, may the heav'n rescued land
Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."

And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

God Bless America, Land that I love
Stand beside her, and guide her,
Through the night with a light from above,
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans, white with foam,
God Bless America, My home sweet home—
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans, white with foam,
God Bless America, My home sweet home,
God Bless America, My home sweet home.

AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties,
Above the fruited plain.
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood,
From sea to shining sea.

WELCOME FRIENDS

I think that God will never send
A gift so precious as a friend;
A friend who always understands,
And fills each need as it demands;
Whose loyalty will stand the test,
When skies are bright, or overcast;
Who sees the faults that merit blame,
But keeps on loving just the same;
Who does far more than creeds could do
To make us good, to make us true.
Earth's gifts a sweet enjoyment lend;
But only God can give a friend.

THANKSGIVING

For wood to burn, for bread to eat,
Sheltering roof, old friends to greet,
For books to read, and songs to sing—
We thank Thee, Lord, for everything,
For homely comfort, moderate store,
We give Thee thanks, nor ask for more,
But take them all and leave our love—
We yet will thank Thee, God above.

DECEMBER

CHRISTMAS MORNING

The bells ring, clear as bugle note,
Sweet song is thrilling every throat,
'Tis welcome Christmas morning!
Oh, never yet was morn so fair,
Such silent music in the air,
'Tis Merry Christmas morning!
Dear day of all days in the year,
Dear day of song, goodwill and cheer,
'Tis golden Christmas morning!
The hope, the faith, the love that is
The peace, the holy promises,
'Tis glorious Christmas morning!

NEW YEAR

The year, like snow upon the mountainside,
Has melted down into a stream
We call the past. Those things
So hard to bear have fled
Go tread new paths this year

Before you spreads, in paths that gleam,
The year, like snow upon the mountainside.
